

Metaphors

Wednesdays from 17:30 to 19:00 nám. Jana Palacha 2 room 104

3.10.

Jewish Metaphors of Political Power: Ruler Portraits in the Catalan Mappamundi (Majorca, c. 1375)

Katrin Kogman-Appel
University of Münster

10.10.

Ambiguous words, prophetic deeds: Augustine on figurative language

Carmen Cardelle de Hartmann
University of Zurich

24.10.

Bathing as metaphor in medieval literature

Elizabeth Archibald
University of Durham

17.10.

Martyrdom and metaphor: Saints as Christian symbols in medieval Iberia

Kati Ilnat
University of Nijmegen

31.10.

Issues in the diachronic study of metaphors

Zoltán Kövecses
Eötvös Loránd University Budapest

7.11.

Borrowing metaphor in early English: new forms, new metaphors?

Kathryn Allan
University College London

14.11.

FOOD, MEMORY, and TIME in the Middle Ages. Towards corpus study of Medieval Latin metaphors

Krzysztof Nowak
Lexicon Mediae et Infimae Latinitatis Polonorum
Institute of Polish Language,
Polish Academy of Sciences,
Kraków

21.11.

Tigertillia Terribilis, and other concretised metaphors in nonsense literature

Sakari Katajamäki
Finnish Literature Society, Helsinki

28.11.

Jerome's use of metaphors in his letters

Philip Polcar
University of Vienna

5.12.

Conversion as Figure and Event

Ryan Szpiech
University of Michigan

12.12.

Myth and Metaphor in the Medieval Commentary Tradition

Marek Thue Kretschmer
University of Trondheim

19.12.

Biblical allegories of space and object in scholastic and devotional exposition

Christiania Whitehead
University of Warwick

For further information email Lucie.Dolezalova@ff.cuni.cz or Jan.Cermak@ff.cuni.cz.

FILOZOFICKÁ FAKULTA
Univerzita Karlova

PRAGUE CENTRE
FOR JEWISH STUDIES

EUROPEAN UNION
European Structural and Investment Funds
Operational Programme Research,
Development and Education

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION,
YOUTH AND SPORTS